

Summary of Content 2008 National
Household Travel
Survey

For Each Household:

Number of people
Number of drivers
Number of workers
Number of vehicles
Income
Housing Type
Owned or rented
Race of reference person
Hispanic status of reference person
Tract and Block Group characteristics

For Each Person:

Age
Sex
Relation to reference person
Driver status
Worker status/Primary activity Internet use*
Highest grade completed
Immigrant status*
Views on transportation
Annual miles driven

For Each Worker:

Full or part-time
More than one job
Occupation (four categories)*
Workplace location
Usual mode to work
Drive alone or Carpool
Usual distance to work
Work from home
Commercial driver status

For Each Vehicle:

Make Model
Age (year)
How long owned*

Daily Travel Data:

Origin and Destination address (for add-ons)
Time trip started and ended
Distance
Means of transportation:
 Vehicle type
 if household vehicle, which one if transit, wait time
 if transit, access and egress mode*
Detailed purpose*
Number of others on trip:
 specific household members
 number of non-household members who drove (if private vehicle)
Most recent trip for non-travelers (date)*
Incidence of walk and bike trips in past week